Common Core State Standards – Michigan Timeline (1983-2015)

1983 "A Nation at Risk" report commissioned by President Ronald Reagan led to realization that schools in the U.S. are falling behind

2005, Achieve, Inc. launched the American Diploma Project Network to help states align standards chart their own path to college- and career-readiness.

April 17, 2009 Meeting with Governors and Chiefs to ask states to sign MOU

2009-10 MI validates and aligns standards to MI standards June 2, 2010
Final Common
Core State
Standards
released

2010 - Curent: Districts implement and teach standards Spring 2013, over 700 Michigan schools participate in Smarter Balanced pilot test

Spring 2015 districts begin Smarter Balanced Assessments

2002 No Child Left Behind Act driven by President George W. Bush was created to increase rigor in standards and accountability November, 2007 CCSSO Annual Policy Forum, Discussion regarding developing Common Standards with chief state school officers June 9, 2009

NGA and CCSSO
announce 48
states and territories agree to develop
standards

March 10, 2010 State Board of Education release K-12 Standards released for public and MI Legislature Leadership comment June 15, 2010 State Board approved Standards Fall 2012, Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium releases sample items and assessment blueprints. Spring 2014, all Michigan schools will have the opportunity to participate in Smarter Balanced field-test